SHIPS AND SHIPOWNERS.
A PAMPHLET by Mr. Manser, of the steam-ship Formosa, entitled "The Mercantile Marine and Royal Naval Reserve," has been brought to our notice, and as containing some useful hints to those interested in such matters, is worth perusal. It is written in a plain straightforward style, not remarkable for elegance, but bringing forward some important arguments in favour of an improvement in the regulations at present affecting our Mercantile Marine. In a Colony like this, of which the prosperity depends entirely upon the conditions of our carrying trade, a little attention devoted to their consideration can scarcely be thrown away, and we therefore propose to notice some of the suggestions put forth by Mr Manser.

—(1) those affecting the officers and seamen of vessels, and (2) those affecting shipowners and others concerned while the vessel is in port. In one sense the interests of the owner are of course intimately affected by the condition of his employees but we shall confine our remarks to those matters in which the masters and crews of vessels have no control. The first point is the unseaworthiness of many vessels chartered for freight, and the power which exists of insuring the hulls and cargoes of such vessels above their real value: the second relates to the undermanning and bad provisioning and storing of vessels, whether sound or the reverse. As Mr Manser truly observes the first question lies with owners and ships'-husbands alone. A captain is often engaged who, after joining his vessel, comes to the conclusion that though able to put to sea in tolerable weather, she is badly qualified to stand out a heavy gale or typhoon. He may have serious doubts as to the advisability of sailing when a low Barometer, and other signs familiar to the mariner, foretell "dirty weather," but he is powerless to do more than remonstrate. If he will not put to sea, some one else can easily be found to take command and run all risks. "But," says the general reader, "would the owner risk the loss of his ship?" The reply is that unfortunately the insurance system allows the ship-owner to insist upon his vessel being taken to sea in any weather, his profits being often greater in the event of her loss than if she reaches her destination in safety. Mr Maudsley's proposal to meet this evil is to permit vessels and freight to be to be insured for two thirds of their value only. We do not think that this would quite meet the case, though there is something in the proposition. His proposal to give additional powers to masters of vessels, and additional protection to the protests of crews, is more to the point. He mentions one case in which an unseaworthy vessel was twice sent to sea and reached her port in safety, and describes how the survey held by the Magistrates' order to ascertain the truth of the crew's complaints was rendered abortive by the ship being trimmed so as to lift the leaky portion. The men, who had right on their side, got three months' hard labour for unfounded complaints and mutiny, i. e., refusing to go to sea in an unsafe vessel. Similar cases have occurred within our own knowledge, doubtless cases are the unfortunately ignored. Under which Owing to we must admit not in favor of shipwreck sent to sea under stores, such &c., and, which shamefully put the owners. The captain as seldom attended to the, unseaworthy in the hull, this only per the niggardly pelled by no employment offered deputes his turn neglected a case is per public is anxious in which the insufficient crew are alleged of the deaths refer to the v that case at the that Mr. Manly applicable not a hundred. 12	12	12	12	12	12	12	12	12	12	12

2.—No Money Order to include a fractional part of a Penny.

3.—Orders drawn in the United Kingdom upon Hongkong, Shanghai, and Yokohama, will be paid at the rate of Exchange at which Money Orders are being issued at the time of their presentation.

4.—Alphabetical List of over 3,700 Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, showing the Counties in which they are situated, are hung up for public reference at this Office, and also at Shanghai and Yokohama.

5.—Applicants for Money Orders must furnish, in full, the surname, and, at least, the initial of one Christian name, both of the Remitter and the Payee; if the Remitter or Payee be a Peer or a Bishop, his ordinary title will be sufficient; if a firm, the usual designation of such firm, such as "Baring Brothers" will suffice; but the mere term Messrs., such as "Messrs. Barington," or the name of a Company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, such as "Carron Co." is inadmissible.

6.—The Remitter on stating that the Order is to be paid only through a Bank, to have the option of giving or withdrawing the name of the Payee; in such case, the Order will be crossed in the same way that Cheques are commonly crossed when they are intended to be paid through a Bank.

7.—When an Order is presented through a Bank, a receipt by any person will be sufficient, provided the Order be crossed with the name of the receiving Bank, and be presented by some Person known to be in the employ of such Bank.

8.—The signature of the Payee of a Money Order to be affixed to the Order in the place provided for the purpose. If the Payee be unable to write he must sign the receipt by making his mark in the presence of a Witness, who must sign his name, with his address in the presence of the Officer who pays the Order.

9.—Should the Payee of a Money Order desire to receive payment in the Country in which the Order was issued, at some other Office than that in which the Order was originally drawn, the transfer will be granted, provided the Order be inclosed to the Postmaster of the Office in which it was drawn. In such case a new Order will be issued, the Commission chargeable upon which will be deducted from the amount of the new Order.

10.—In the event of a Money Order mislaid, or being lost, a duplicate will be granted on a written application from the Payee, (containing the necessary particulars, and accompanied by an additional Commission) to the Office where the Original Order was payable.

11.—On the receipt of a similar application, orders will be given to stop payment of a Money Order, or to renew a lapsed Order. The additional Commission in the last case will be deducted from the amount of the new Order. Lapsed Orders must be presented with the application for a new Order.

12.—But when it is desired that any error in the name of the Remitter or Payee should be corrected or that the amount of a Money Order should be repaid to the Remitter, or that a Lapsed Order should be renewed for payment in the Country in which the Order was originally drawn, application must be made to the Chief Money Order Office of such Country. This application must be accompanied by an additional Commission, unless it have reference to a Lapsed Order, in which case the Commission will be deducted from the amount of the new Order.

13.—Repayment whether of an original, or renewed, or a duplicate Order, will not be made to the remitter until it has been ascertained that the advice has been cancelled at the Office on which the Order was originally drawn.

14.—Payment of an Order must be obtained before the end of the Sixth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn; for instance, if drawn in January, payment must be obtained before the end of July; otherwise the Order will become lapsed, and a new Order (for which a second Commission, to be deducted from the amount of the Order, will be charged) will become necessary.

15.—If an Order be not paid before the end of the Twelfth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn, for instance, if drawn in January and not paid before the end of the following January—all claim to the Money will be forfeited, unless, under peculiar circumstances, the Post Office of the Country in which the Order was drawn think proper to allow it.

16.—After once paying a Money Order by whomsoever presented, the paying Office will not be liable to any further claim. If a wrong payment, however, be made owing to negligence on the part of any Officer of the Office, the Postmaster General of the Country or Colony in which the negligence occurs will, if he see fit, require the Officer in fault to make good the loss.

17.—No Money Order will be paid unless the advice has been previously received.

18.—Additional Rules for greater security against fraud, and for the better working of the system generally will be made as occasion may require.

19.—Should it appear that Money Orders are used by mercantile men, or others, either in the United Kingdom or at Hongkong, Shanghai or Yokohama, for the transmission of large sums of money, the British or Colonial Post Office, as the case may be, will consider the propriety of increasing the Commission; and will exercise the power of wholly suspending for a time the issue of Money Orders.

By Command, F. W. MITCHELL, Postmaster General.

among the foreign merchants in China.
Those for calculating the prices of tea in sion of the author, P. Loureiro, Esq. The last section of the same chapter, on "Movements in Bullion," has been prepared and furnished for the Guide by Patrick R.

"The Appendix of Sailing Directions has been reprinted from the 'China Pilot'.
With short interruptions, the coasts from Singapore to Hakodadi are all described in it; and for the Chinese coasts, the Directions have been improved by the insertion of the Chinese characters for the names of all places that could be ascertained."
